Ford's Theatre Society Announces Abraham Lincoln Institute Online Lincoln Symposium

Livestreamed April 12 and 13 at 4:00 p.m. EDT

Washington, D.C.— The Abraham Lincoln Institute and Ford's Theatre Society present a free online symposium series focused on the life, career and legacy of President Abraham Lincoln, April 12 and 13 at 4:00 p.m. EDT. The virtual symposium features authors Christopher Bonner, Michael Burlingame, Thavolia Glymph, Jonathan W. White and others. Events are simulcast through Ford's Theatre digital platforms including Facebook Live, YouTube, Twitter and the Ford's Theatre website.

Dr. Michelle A Krowl, Civil War and Reconstruction Specialist for the Library of Congress's Manuscript Division and former Abraham Lincoln Institute president will introduce each speaker's presentation. Noted authors and historians will discuss aspects of our 16th president's popular memory and legacy, his interactions with abolitionists and his evolving vision for Emancipation. Historian Edna Greene Medford will facilitate a virtual viewer Q&A at each event, which follows the speakers program.

Ford's Theatre Society

One of the most visited sites in the nation's capital, Ford's Theatre reopened its doors in 1968, more than a hundred years after the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln. Operated through a partnership between Ford's Theatre Society and the National Park Service, Ford's Theatre is the premier destination in the nation's capital to explore and celebrate Abraham Lincoln's ideals and leadership principles: courage, integrity, tolerance, equality and creative expression.

Ford's Theatre Society was founded under the guidance of executive producer Frankie Hewitt, who, during her 35-year tenure, established Ford's as a living, working theatre producing performances that highlighted the diversity of the American experience. Since the arrival of Paul R. Tetreault as Director, critics and the theatregoing public have recognized Ford's for the superior quality of its artistic programming. With works from the Tony-nominated Come From Away and the nationally acclaimed Big River, to the world premieres of Meet John Doe, The Heavens Are Hung In Black, Liberty Smith, Necessary Sacrifices, The Widow Lincoln and The Guard, Ford's Theatre is making its mark on the American theatre landscape. In the past decade, the mission of Ford's Theatre Society expanded to include education as a central pillar. This expansion led to the creation and construction of the Center for Education and Leadership, which opened in February 2012. Under the current leadership of Board of Trustees Chairman Phebe N. Novakovic and through the lens of Lincoln's leadership and legacy, Ford's today endeavors to advance Lincoln's "unfinished work" with programs and performances that cultivate empathy, encourage dialogue and bridge divides in our American life.
