The Characters of A Christmas Carol

Sensory-Friendly Performance
Character Descriptions

EBENEZER SCROOGE
A selfish, bitter, cold-hearted man who hates Christmas. He values money above everything else. He thinks kindness and charity are a waste of time and money.

Photo of Craig Wallace by Carol Rosegg.

BOB CRATCHIT
A kind, hardworking man. He has worked for Scrooge for many years. He makes barely enough money to support his large family. He loves his family, especially his youngest child, Tiny Tim, very much.

Photo of Jonathan Atkinson by Titus Ogilvie-Laing.

SOLICITORS
Two men who ask for holiday donations for the poor. People often give money to charities during the holiday season.

Photo of Michael Bunce and Tyler Herman by Titus Ogilvie-Laing.
Character Descriptions

FRED
Scrooge’s nephew and only family member. He is jolly and kind and loves Christmas. Fred’s mother, Fan, was Scrooge’s beloved sister. Fan died soon after Fred was born. Scrooge has never been close with Fred.

CLOCK VENDOR, DOLL VENDOR, FRUIT VENDOR
Each of these people are trying to sell goods to the people of London—antique dolls, fruits and nuts for a feast, or new inventions and technology. They each owe Scrooge a lot of money. Instead of repaying him on Christmas Eve, they each give him one of their goods—a special doll, a jug of cider and a steam-powered clock.

CHILDREN SINGING CAROLS
A group of children singing Christmas carols outside shops and on street corners to make money.
MRS. DILBER
Scrooge’s housekeeper. She is upbeat but frustrated by Scrooge.

BEGGAR WOMAN
A woman with a baby who begs for money in the street.

UNDEARTAKER
A person whose job is to prepare dead bodies for funeral and burial.
Character Descriptions

GHOST OF JACOB MARLEY
Jacob Marley was Scrooge’s friend and business partner. He died seven years ago on Christmas Eve. Marley cared only about money, like Scrooge. He visits Scrooge to warn him.

GHOST OF CHRISTMAS PAST
A young, bright spirit who can fly. She is not frightening. She represents every Christmas that has happened in the past. She shows Scrooge moments from his childhood and from his young adulthood. She makes Scrooge remember things he would prefer to forget.

BOY SCROOGE
Ebenezer Scrooge as a child. He has been sent to boarding school and misses his family. He does not have very many friends. He loves to read stories about magic and adventure.
YOUNG SCROOGE

Ebenezer Scrooge as a young man. He is poor but determined. He works very hard. He wants to become successful and rich, even at the cost of his friendships.

FAN

Scrooge’s beloved sister. She is always kind and loving to Scrooge and everyone around her.

MR. AND MRS. FEZZIWIG

Mr. Fezziwig is Scrooge’s first employer. He and his wife are joyful, good businesspeople who treat their workers well. Mr. and Mrs. Fezziwig throw a wonderful Christmas party every year.

YOUNG SCROOGE

Ebenezer Scrooge as a young man. He is poor but determined. He works very hard. He wants to become successful and rich, even at the cost of his friendships.
Character Descriptions

YOUNG JACOB MARLEY
Jacob Marley as a young man. Marley and Scrooge worked together at their first job, called an apprenticeship.

---

BELLE
A beautiful, young woman whom Scrooge loves very much. When they first met, they were both poor and imagined building a life together. Belle does not value money in the same way that Scrooge does, and it comes between them.

---

GHOST OF CHRISTMAS PRESENT
A loud, joyful spirit who represents the current Christmas. She celebrates living in the moment. She shows Scrooge the current Christmas day and how other people celebrate it.
Character Descriptions

MRS. CRATCHIT
Bob Cratchit’s wife and mother of their four children. She is hard-working and loves her family with all of her heart. It makes her angry to see any of them treated badly.

BELINDA, PETER AND MARTHA
The oldest three Cratchit children. Even though Martha is still a child, she already has her first job—an apprentice to a hatmaker. Belinda and Peter are still too young to have jobs, but they help their mother at home.

TINY TIM
Tiny Tim has a disability, which makes him very sick and weak. He uses a crutch to help him walk. In this time in history, people with disabilities were often called “cripples” and you will hear that word used to describe Tiny Tim.
Character Descriptions

MRS. FRED, TOPPER AND MRS. FRED’S SISTER
Fred’s wife and Christmas guests. Mrs. Fred and Fred love each other very much, and they are happy together. They like to play games at parties.

IGNORANCE AND WANT
Two children who represent the worst of humanity. Ignorance represents not knowing or caring about other people around you. Want represents the poor, the hungry and the suffering people in the world. The Ghost of Christmas Present shows them to Scrooge.

GHOST OF CHRISTMAS FUTURE (YET TO COME)
A dark spirit who flies and does not speak. This ghost shows Scrooge a Christmas in the future, revealing what may happen if he does not change his ways.
Character Descriptions

OLD JOE
A thief who makes money buying and selling stolen goods.

Photo of Stephen F. Schmidt by Scott Suchman.

TURKEY BOY
A child whom Scrooge hires on Christmas morning to fetch a giant turkey from the butcher.

Photo of Maxwell Hayes by Titus Ogilvie-Laing.

PEOPLE OF LONDON
Men and women, rich and poor, bustling around the streets of London at Christmastime.

Photo of the 2022 cast by Titus Ogilvie-Laing.
A CHRISTMAS CAROL CHARACTERS – CREDITS

All stage photos are from the Ford’s Theatre production of A Christmas Carol.

The pre-visit materials were developed by:

Ford’s Theatre Access Committee

Designer: Carolina Dulcey

Ford’s Theatre would like to extend special thanks to Roger Ideishi and Diane Nutting for their support, expertise and assistance.

Ford’s Theatre accessibility programs are supported by the Liberty Mutual Foundation.