

Name: _____

Period: _____

Pro Se Court – Judge

As a Judge in a Pro Se Court, it is your job to focus on the evidence presented. Your personal opinion must be set aside.

What questions do you want Side A to address? These should not be “Yes” or “No” questions.	What questions do you want Side B to address? These should not be “Yes” or “No” questions.

Before the Court:

During the Court:

Side A		Side B
Logos		Logos
Presented a Clear Claim (up to Three Points)		Presented a Clear Claim (up to Three Points)
Presented Evidence to support their Claim (Each new piece of evidence is worth Two Points)		Presented Evidence to support their Claim (Each new piece of evidence is worth Two Points)
Presented Evidence to support their counterargument (Each new piece of evidence is worth Two Points)		Presented Evidence to support their counterargument (Each new piece of evidence is worth Two Points)
Answered Questions with Evidence and Explanation (up to Five Points)		Answered Questions with Evidence and Explanation (up to Five Points)
Ethos		Ethos

