

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

GENERAL INFORMATION

The performance is two hours and 20 minutes long, including a 15-minute intermission.

This performance contains:

- Loud noises, including gospel instrumental music, singing and tap dancing.
We strongly recommend patrons bring their own noise-canceling headphones if required. Ford's Theatre has a limited number of noise-canceling headphones available on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Bright and flashing lights.

TICKETING

All tickets for SHOUT SISTER SHOUT! are held under the patron's name and can be picked up upon arrival at the Box Office.

The Box Office is located in the main lobby of Ford's Theatre.

RELAXED "RULES" AT FORD'S THEATRE

We welcome you to move about the theatre or leave to take a break. Quieter spaces will be available in the museum (downstairs) and the balcony. You may take as many breaks as you need, and can return to the theatre whenever you are ready.

The theatre is a no "shushing" zone!

Staff and volunteers are trained in sensory-friendly experiences and are on-site to assist you.

We welcome you to bring your own sensory comforts (weighted blankets, textured cushions, fidgets, communication devices, etc.).

COVID-19 SAFETY

Masks are strongly encouraged for all patrons.
