RULES OF ENGAGEMENT AT FORD'S THEATRE

We are glad that you are joining us at Ford's Theatre today. This is an inclusive and interactive community. Whether you are here to visit our historic site or to see a show, we invite you to be your authentic self.

- We are allowed to be human, in all the ways that make us unique.
- We are allowed to be human together. We encourage you to find moments of respectful connection and engagement with other members of the community.
- We are on common ground. We are all here to enjoy a shared experience and though our reactions and responses may vary, we will remain respectful.
- We are creating a live theatrical experience together; audible reactions and responses are welcome. The actors need you to engage with what you see but not to distract them from their performances.
- We also welcome the use of personal communication devices if they help you to better experience the show, but we encourage you to respect the actors' work and the other audience members around you. Please note that the taking of photographs, video or sound recordings of the performance is not permitted.
- We welcome you to bring your own sensory comforts (weighted blankets, textured cushions, fidgets, etc.). A limited number of noise-cancelling headphones are available to borrow at the Box Office.
