

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

GENERAL INFORMATION

The performance is two hours long, including a 15-minute intermission.

This performance contains:

- Some loud noises, including thunder crashes and singing. We recommend patrons bring their own noise-canceling headphones if required. Ford's Theatre has a limited number of noise-canceling headphones available on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- Haze and smoke effects, sometimes accompanied by flashing lights.
- Walking ghosts and flying ghosts that appear on stage throughout the performance. They are often accompanied by haze, smoke and flashing lights.
- Actors who will mingle in the audience before the show. We welcome you to engage and talk with them.

TICKETING

All tickets for A Christmas Carol are held under the patron's name and can be picked up upon arrival at the Box Office.

The Box Office is located in the main lobby of Ford's Theatre.
