

Welcome to Ford's Theatre!

Housekeeping Reminders

- We welcome you to stand or move about the theatre if needed. Should you need to leave to take a break you may re-enter the theatre whenever you are ready.
- Face coverings are required for all patrons, ushers, staff, volunteers and vendors, regardless of vaccination status. Should you need to remove your mask, please step outside the theatre on to the sidewalk. You can return to the theatre whenever you are ready.
- Quiet spaces are available in the museum and lobby during the performance.
- The theatre is a “no shushing zone!” We welcome you to respond to the performance in your own way.
- Our staff and volunteers are trained in sensory-friendly experiences and are here to assist you if needed.
- We welcome you to use personal communication devices during the performance, but please note there is no videotaping or photography allowed during the show.
- The performance is approximately 95 minutes. There will be no intermission.

Special Thanks

Ford's Theatre would like to extend special thanks to Roger Ideishi and Diane Nutting for their support, expertise and assistance.

Ford's Theatre accessibility programs are supported by the Liberty Mutual Foundation.
