

Create Your Monologue

NAME:

CLASS PERIOD

Answer the questions considering what you want your audience (the person or people who will be listening the monologue) to hear, know and understand.

1. Setting the scene – what does the audience need to understand about the time and location?

2. Key Figures – What details does the audience need to know about the people involved?

3. What's the moment before? What is your character responding to or what prompts you to begin to speak?

4. What's the main action / What do you want your audience to know or understand?

5. Do you need to play any of the other people in the story? What do the other people say that makes the audience better understand your character?

Create Your Monologue

NAME:

6. What's going through your head and heart?
7. What is the moment after? What do you imagine happening after you stop speaking?
8. What's the tone? How do you want the audience to feel?

Tell the story in about 250 words:
